Thanks guys for taking the time to express your concerns about the agreement.
Just to confirm here is what I am going to speak with Andy at the network about:

1. your ability to promote your involvement in the show AFTER a promo or announcement about your participation has been made and before the airing of your episode.
2. Fopps and the fact that is owned by a different company than Gooberry and how this affects our ability to shoot there/include this store as part of the COURAGE B storyline.
3. request language be added into the business agreement that forbids us airing any discussion about the settlement with your mother's ex-husband (WAITING ON LANGUAGE FROM YOU).

Thanks and let me know if you have anything additional.
